

I do not think the phone companies should be able to put the independent ISP's out of business. They do a great job. What happened to the laws that broke up AT&T because they were a monopoly? Leave our ISP's alone.